

BRIDGING CULTURES

Call for facilitators/volunteers for the “Bridging Cultures Short Course”

As part of our ongoing commitment to fostering positive change and building a more inclusive world, we are excited to announce an opportunity for you to contribute to our upcoming Bridging Cultures UWC Short Course.

About the Bridging Cultures

This short course aims to equip participants with the skills and knowledge necessary to bridge cultural divides and promote effective communication in diverse settings. The program will focus on key principles of multicultural understanding and nonviolent communication, providing practical tools that can be applied in various personal and professional contexts.

Call for Facilitators/Volunteers

We believe in the power of our community to make a difference, and we are seeking dedicated individuals among UWC alumni, previous participants, or experienced facilitators to serve as facilitators/volunteers for this transformative short course. Your unique experiences and insights will contribute significantly to the program's success. Meals and accommodation will be provided and transportation costs within the country.

Responsibilities of Facilitators/Volunteers

As the social media volunteer you are responsible for maintaining our instagram and facebook page, updating it with everyday activities and making the short course visible online.

As the facilitator for the workshops you can contribute by leading discussions and activities related to multicultural understanding, nonviolent communication, peace building etc.

As the facilitator for social activities you are responsible for leading and organizing a wide range of activities that main goal is entertainment and community building. These activities play a crucial role in fostering social bonds, promoting well-being, and creating a sense of community. (For more detailed role description check below)

How to Apply:

If you are enthusiastic about contributing to this initiative, please fill out the application form. Additionally, attach recommendations if you have. You can specify what you would like to facilitate but you can also choose all of the roles and after the interview we'll together agree which is best for you.

Submission Deadline: February, 1

We look forward to your active involvement in making the world a better place to live.
